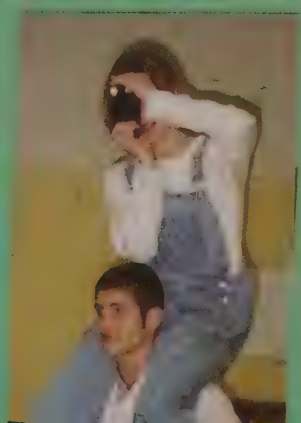
Caribbean Cruise

There was much planning that went into the '98 Junior Prom. Miraculously, it all came together the three days and nights preceding May 10, 1997. We had built a ship under the moon and stars, complete with water and a gangplank. It was truly a sight to behold and enjoy as we danced the night away under a gossamer sky.



The "Majesty" sets sail . . .

Green Advisors

Mr. Spisto, Mrs. Estaphan, Ms. Yurkinas and Ms. Maroni have made our SHS years more enjoyable! Ms. Yurkinas added Spirit to the Junior Prom with her entertaining dance moves! Mr. Spisto has helped steer many students toward a positive direction. Ms. Maroni's creativity and guidance has helped through the years, and especially when putting the Prom foyer together. Whenever we felt overwhelmed with dances, fundraisers and deadlines, Mrs. Estaphan was always there to put us back on the organization track. We can't thank them enough. We simply could not have done it all without them!

Family and Consumer Science

The Family and Consumer Science Department is responsible for courses in cooking and early childhood development and education. The department has introduced a course that focuses on Food Science and Nutrition and alternates with intercultural foods. The wellness portion of foods is often stressed in cooking class. Stir-fries are among students' favorite foods. In Early Childhood Development, honors students will go out to see similar programs at other schools. Hopefully, this will improve our own Early Childhood Development curriculum. SHS students like this course because they can interact with the preschoolers and see how the kids react.

The teachers are Mrs. Mooradian, Mrs. Stapleton (Director), Mrs. Tebbetts, Mrs. Daigneault, and Mrs. McCullough.

Lights, Camera, Action . . . (ETS)

Students in the Educational Television Studio have been extremely busy this year, filming sporting events, School Committee meetings, Elementary Spotlights, SMSTV, and, of course, Colonial Magazines. After the loss of many technical gurus, the studio has relied upon the expertise of new technician, Greg, "I like to keep the carpet clean" Marceau, and this year's juniors, Gino Ginerelli and Brian L'Heureux. Extraordinary senior talents include James "Beef" O'Leary, Adam "Headbanger" Hurter, and Derek "BRZT" Broszeit. Instructor Maggie "I love snow" Korab has had the pleasure of working with a "creative bunch of kids," newcomer Justine Kavanagh, K-7 Coordinator Bridget Connole, and Channel Coordinator Liz Desjardins.

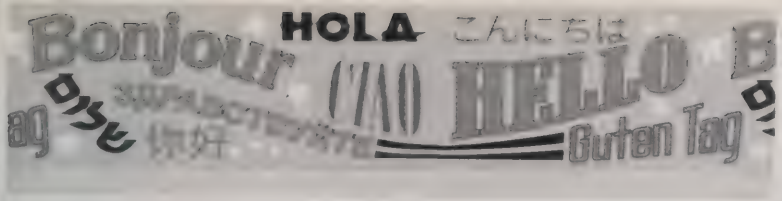
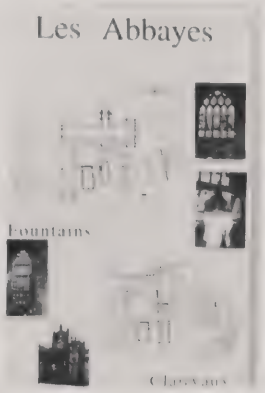
Ken Ambach, John Chernick, Jill Becker, Leslie Hicks and Hema Patel take a few minutes away from monitor and keyboard.

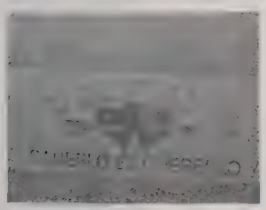
Journalism Students work (most of the time) very hard each day to meet their monthly deadlines (The Yearbook commiserates!)



World Languages

Mrs. Teggart (Director), Mrs. Black, Mrs. Estaphan, Mrs. Olson, Dr. Courchesne, Ms. Nattinville and Mrs. LaBua (Mr. Moro, new Latin Teacher appears below); classes shown are Mrs. Black's, Mrs. Teggart's and Mr. Moro's. Ms. Nattinville's ESL classes are recorded on Page 163. As the numbers indicate, almost two thirds of SHS students avail themselves of the opportunity to study another language: 487 Spanish; 69 French; 53 Latin! Always a high point in language study is the opportunity to be immersed in that culture via travel. This year, Dr. Courchesne will be leading a group to France, and Mrs. Black to Spain. We look forward to having travel pictures for the Spring "Extra"! Bon Voyage!





The Yearbook thanks World Languages for their support!

Health & Wellness

This year there was a broad campaign during "The Great American Smokeout" campaign. Students displayed posters about the building and then kept check on the "lavs": Kristin Hadley, Nicole Ricciardi, Lauren Esposito, Ryan Cooney; Mr. Warren demonstrates and discusses CPR techniques; Mrs. Jonaitis and student assistants (Jennah Kasparian, Julie Mehne, Michelle Violette) demonstrate First-aid and CPR during 8th Grade Open House; Mrs. Degon (Director), Mr. Marchand, Mrs. Jonaitis and Mr. Warren (also the Director of the Athletic Program) teach Health and its expansion into Wellness. Mr. Marchand poses with one of his classes (if in color, it would show an abundance of "red", the Class of 2000!).

Wellness is a new collaborative for all 9th Graders which coordinates Health, Physical Education, Family & Consumer Science and Guidance as well as Media skills. Units are: Emotional Health, Consumer Health, Fitness, Conflict Resolution, Substance Abuse, Community Health: a comprehensive look at that which impacts one's total being.

You may not spy them very often, but the Yearbook Staff does during their hundreds of afternoon and evening working hours! How often they've "saved" us by provided access to a PRINTER!

Media

Mrs. McDonald checks Media documents with Mrs. Costello. The Media Center is where many Clubs and Activities meet. Here, the Dream Team prepares to meet Jeanne White as she visits SHS. And, of course, students and teachers come every day to work at the Computers and do homework!

Groovin' Hard . . .

Smoother than "Latin Satin," and more fun that a "Festival de Ritmo," it's the SHS Jazz Band! Rocking out with some new material like "Brass Machine" and "Bella Via," or laying in the groove with some old favorites like "C Jam Blues" and "Oye Como Va" (that's the one where Pete plays the nutty Bass solo) the band is having fun during '97-'98. They were well received at the Rotary Club's pancake breakfast, and at the fall concert. The members look forward to playing at lunches and their all-Latin set at the mid-winter concert.

. . . With the SHS Jazz Band

With a Smile and a Song . . .

The Choirs at Shrewsbury High School enjoyed successful concerts this fall and winter under the direction of the capable Mr. Feldheimer, and also in this year's spring musical Carousel. At the Holiday Concert the Concert Choir sang "The Night Before Christmas" and "O Night Divine," and "Eight Candles" for a real winter holiday mix. The A Capella choir sang "Carol of the Bells," and then had some fun with "Good King Kong," in which they employed the musical texturing of kazoos. In the fall, the Shrewsbury Schools Music Department was unfortunate in losing Mrs. Selma Gottlieb, the accompanist for the Concert and A Capella choirs for many years, to cancer. Mrs. Gottlieb was eighty-one.

The Yearbook thanks the Choir for supporting them.

Tuning up — Orchestra

The SHS Orchestra has had a great season under the skilled direction of Mr. Metcalf. A change to the orchestra this year concerns its size. The group has become smaller because of the lack of eighth graders, but still creates beautiful sounds. Highlights of this year include the Fall Concert, featuring Corelli's "Concerto Grosso No. 2" as well as some delightful tangos. We also hosted the High School Fall Orchestra Festival. This was an event where other district schools' orchestras participated in some fine music making. The Holiday Concert programmed Mozart's "3rd Violin Concerto" with Yuko Shimokawa as soloist. "Fantasia on Greensleeves" by Vaughn-Williams featured Liana Popkin on flute and Corey Bernhard on piano. The night ended on a good note, with the traditional "White Christmas."

Orchestra: Violin: Kylee Augustino, Emily Barko, Sachin Bhavsar, Mary Brunell, Emily Cheney, Laura Ciociolo (Manager), Lori D'Elia, Alan Emerson (Librarian), Sue Ganas, Callum Gow (President), Ingrid Gustafson, Shannon Hawley, Greg Hwang, Asavari Kamerkar (Manager), Geeta Kohli, Shaw Lupton, Alana Leach, Jessica Lynch, Charles Mak, Michelle Panagian, Liana Popkin, Robert Roddy, Jennifer Saba (Librarian), Yuko Shimokawa (Concertmistress, Manager), Emily Wadsworth; Viola: Cona Anwer, Christina Lopriore, Alexandra Pappas, Matthew Ryzewski, Jasmine Sahni, Leah Segrin, Tracy Smith, Allison White; Cello: Shalea Angelo (Vice President), Dana Fisher, Burgess Gow (Attendance Officer), Jessica Leach; Double Bass: Jacqueline Phillips; Piano: Corey Bernhard; Conductor: Mr. Ralph Metcalf.

Once again, The Orchestra has shown their support of the Yearbook. Our thanks!

On the Field . . .

Taking to the field in their bright new uniforms, it's the Colonials Marching Band! The band, directed by Mr. Anthony "Big Tony" Uglialoro and Drum Majors Sara Cheney, Liz Farina, and Anthony "Little Tony" Pereira, played "Carmina Burana" and "Samba de Rollins" on the field, and broke out some old favorites in the stands, like "Land of 1000 Dances" and "Thundercrest Overture." Brrr! It was a cold, wet season this year, which kept the band in the stands for Thanksgiving Day. The marching season was extended because the Football team made the Super Bowl, and the band performed its first away game ever at Springfield College!

A special thank you goes to the Shrewsbury Schools Music Association for their help in purchasing new uniforms for the Marching Band!

. . . And On the Stage

The Band took to the stage for the Holiday Concert, where they played "Fum Fum Fum," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," and "Fugue on Yankee Doodle." A number of the band members also joined the orchestra in accompaniment of the choir for Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus." They had a late start due to the extension of the marching season, but they pulled through for an excellent performance. They also have concerts in February and April, with "March of the Cute Little Wood Sprites," and "Anthem for Victory." A few lucky members of the band will play in the pit orchestra for the musical, "Carousel."

(Lt.) Mr. "U" conducts the band, and Dave watches Krista warm up. (Rt.) Tim LaBua prepares for the Halleluja Chorus. (Bel.) Alison Zuegg works on a piccolo solo.

"Team of Destiny"

Were there "Angels in the End Zone?" We'll probably never know. But one thing is for sure, the 1997 SHS Football Team will go down in history as one of the most talented and tenacious teams to take Bergstrom Field. Led by fourth year head coach Sean Mahoney and Captains Billy DeMalia, Tim Finacom, Sean Biadasz and Brian O'Connor, the team compiled one of the best records in this school's history. The guys started off with an unprecedented 6-0 start. This amazing accomplishment included a 40-28 win on Homecoming Night over Fitchburg, a perennial powerhouse that hadn't lost to Shrewsbury since 1979, and an unbelievable 24-21 comeback win over Leominster. The Leominster win was an SHS first. DeMalia's top ranking, record breaking performances pushed SHS to the top, while the other Captains, Finacom, Biadasz, O'Connor, and Seniors Shant Arakelian, Matt DiPietro, Ben Keller, Ryan Cooney, Jeff Siddell, Michael Duggan, Jay Rudman, Mark Hawley, Jay Chernick, Andy Cooksey, Bob Babigian, J.R. DeMalia, Justin Collard, and Jeff Mayer, as well as Junior Mike Mastro helped the team stay at number one. This Super Bowl bound team, of course, deserves a lot of recognition. (See pages 132 & 133 for Thanksgiving & Super Bowl highlights, page 64 Frosh Football Team.)

GO! FIGHT! WIN!

The Cheerleaders! Breathtaking stunts, impressive formations, and tons of spirit is what makes up a great squad. This year's fall Cheerleading team was that and more. The heart of the squad was, of course, the Seniors, who will be greatly missed next year. The season started off in early August when the girls performed at the Floral. St. School Open House. The performance was followed up by a clinic for girls in grades 1 through 8. It was a complete success. In late November, the squad, performed at the Solomon Pond Mall for the benefit of the "Great American Smokeout," which is sponsored by the Mass Department of Public Health. Their cheer sent the "don't smoke" message. Besides the numerous instances of community service, the Cheerleaders gave endless support to the amazing football team and cheered them to their many victories.

IT TAKES HEART TO

Excellence would be one word used to describe the 1997 Girls Soccer team, and depth might be another. The team held two League-leading keepers (Lynch, Ganas) and four League-leading scorers, four League All-Stars (Lynch, Tomecka, Sciammacco, Daly) and four Central Mass All-Stars (Largess, Sciammacco, Daly, Tomecka). Lead by Captains Ellen Daly and Sara Sciammacco, the girls finished with a school-best 17-3-1 record. The end of the season was especially exciting as the team, seeded third in Central Mass Division 1, beat rival Wachusett in the semi-final round of Districts to advance to the finals (the first Girls Soccer team in SHS history to do so). Although the season ended on a fairly low note with a loss to Nashoba in the finals, there is certainly nothing to be disappointed about. The squad returning for 1998 looks to be strong with a large rising junior class, but the departing seniors Barko, Buonomo, Daly, Lynch, and Sciammacco have left big shoes to fill . . .

BE CHAMPIONS.

Boys Soccer: Yahtzee!!!

The season got off to a "colorful" start: five cards in the first two games: a threatening situation. They shaved their heads, yanked up their socks and Mr. Warren threatened to terminate the team if they received any more cards — fortunately the boys pulled together and finished the season with only nine cards. The strength of the team lay in the powerhouse seniors: Filippetti, Mehne, Pedone, Mawdsley, Fotiadis, Josie, Ronayne, Hoey, and Captains Sanavage and Jarquin. Despite key wins against Leominster and North Middlesex, the boys failed to make it to Districts. "The hardest part of the season was knowing that it was Jim's last year as our coach; we wanted to win for him," said Captain Sanavage. On a brighter note, next year's team looks promising with the leadership of juniors Rogers, Ahlstrand, Bennett, Kujala, DePew, and big Sroka. Congratulations to Captain Jarquin for reaching 50 points during his SHS soccer career.

All Eight Up . . . CREW

In only their second fall season ever, the SHS Crew team has done extremely well. This season, the team was against all odds, with little experience and a small team. But their motto could have been, "Discipline, unity, and power," because that, the team had in abundance. The main difference between fall and spring, says Coach Krause, lies in the atmosphere. "Spring races are not only against the clock, but also against other boats." The fall season boasts races up to two miles, which requires determination and endurance. The races are not against other schools' boats, but instead, the stopwatch is the enemy. This is what makes fall crew such a demanding sport. Training and practice promotes learning and listening because a boat is one unit, not nine people each doing their own thing. Here, the SHS Crew team is one leg above the rest. They have given hard work, family, and fun, a new meaning.

Captains, Coaches, & Seniors

The coaches of the fall crew program are Mr. and Mrs. Krause. Mrs. Krause has been coaching the boys' crew for 23 years and her husband, Mr. Krause, has been giving orders to the girls for 12 years.

Chris Casey

Chris is what one would call a "veteran rower". He began attending races at the young age of 10, which commenced his devotion to the sport. Since then, he has gone far beyond the realms of high school crew, even having competed at the national level. Another one of his achievements includes being part of the Killer Bees, which is a well-known Masters Four. Chris is a dedicated crew member, working always to be the best he can possibly be and aiming to help others along the way. He has been called by many, "... one of the best coxswains on the lake, including the college members." Upon going to college, he hopes to try out for the national team and someday make it to the Olympics.

Dave White

Having rowed for six full seasons, Dave is a vital member of the team. His best side, he says, is starboard bow, and has spent most of his time rowing there. His strengths include his technique and his remarkable endurance and is often called one of the "power-houses" of the team. He was introduced into the demanding sport in 6th grade by his cousin, a past captain of the SHS Girls' team, and "... fell in love with everything about crew." He says crew is in his blood, with four cousins and a sister all having rowed for the SHS team. His plans for the future include developing his passion by attending a college with an outstanding crew program.

Melissa Lucente

To Melissa, her crew experiences mean unity, camaraderie, and fun. She had known, as a Middle School student, that it was her dream to be on the crew team, because the sport was unique and exciting. Sure enough, as an eighth grader, Melissa began crew as a varsity alternate, a very good position for her age. She has since shown exceptional strength and devotion, and as a captain strives to achieve the same for her girls. She is versatile in her skills, being able to row both starboard and port. One of her favorite memories of crew is the pre-race boat meetings, where rowers often exchange special tokens for good luck such as necklaces, poems, or sayings. Her hope for the future is to attend a university with a very strong crew team.

Addie Roberge

Addie's foremost priority lies in the word "team." She began crew her freshman year and, as confessed by many crew athletes, was hooked within her first season. She attributes her own growth both mentally and physically to this team-oriented sport. Her fondest memories include singing on the boat, swimming in the lake on hot days, the long bus rides, and her first win. In the future, she hopes to participate in crew competitively at the intercollegiate level. Addie has a perpetual contagious enthusiasm and loving pride in all of her teammates. With her many seasons of difficult yet rewarding work in crew, she has, "... gained the will to never give up and to give it my all in whatever I do."

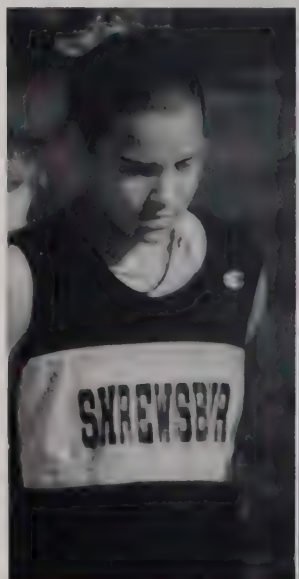
Going the Distance . . .

"You've got to believe deep inside yourself that you are destined to do great things" was the motto for the 1997 Girls Cross Country team. With determination, dedication, and lots of spirit, the girls finished another successful season. Newcomer coach Paul Goewey assisted the runners in achieving their many victories. The final record posted only two losses to North Middlesex and Wachusett and a third place at the League Meet. This year's seniors, Emily Wadsworth, Juli Baril, Jackie Ferreer, Kerri Stafford, Ani Baronian, and Beth Terrill, lead by Captain Maggie Rivas, will be greatly missed. But next year's team will be coming back strong with Lori D'Elia, Beth Koziara, Erin Barrell, Kerri Ward, and Gina Valentine.



Further . . .

Congratulations to Lori D'Elia and Gina Valentine for participating in the State Meet on November 15.

Getting Out Fast . . .

Boys' Cross

Led by Captain Kevin Andreson, the Boys' Cross Country team finished their season at a winning 6-3, and a solid fifth place finish in the District Meet. The team was "old" this year, with Kevin followed by Junior Matt Davis and Seniors Callum Gow, Timothy LaBua (also a Captain), Anthony Pereira, and Adam Hurter. Sophomore Bill Younker and Freshman Jason Trikakis came on strong to fill out the Varsity, with strong contributions from Seniors Eric Weingart and Jeff Duquette and Junior Jared Starr. Though many of the Varsity were Seniors this year, next year's team could stay strong with Davis, Younker and Trikakis leading the way.

Country . . . And Finishing Strong.

Kick it in guys . . .

K.S.A.

This season was an unbelievable one. On September 18, the girls beat rival Wachusett 1-0. A mean defense was lead by juniors Hawley and goalie Calimeris; the offense by Captain Ferguson and junior Phillips, the team's leading scorer (13 points and two assists). The team qualified for Districts during a home game against Algonquin, winning 3-0. Unfortunately, their first district game was against Leominster. Goalie Calimeris kept the team in the game with the help of indispensable defensive players Hawley and Manzoli, going into the second half scoreless. However, in that second half Leominster popped three in, and Shrewsbury just wasn't able to score. Next year, the team promised, they would "slap the monkeys" out of Leominster.

Seniors on the season:

"This season was remarkable. We finished 2nd in the league. Our goal keeper was 3rd and our left wing (Phillips) and center forward (Ferguson) individually in the top 3 for overall leading goal scores. Dedication and hard work resulted in district play for the first time in four years."
(Jess)

"Coming off a hard season, the team established itself as a strong league team, finishing 8-5-4. The strong offensive line, including leading scorer Phillips, center forward Ferguson and center mid Brunell, finally found the key to scoring goals. The equally strong defense included goalie Calimeris and the defensive line of Senior fullback Corapi and Junior Hawley. Losing only three Seniors, the team has promising potential for next year."
(Liz)

"This year's team had one of its best seasons. Returning Coach Bernard and new Coach Mahoney did a great job getting the girls ready for big games. The team remained undefeated for the first six games, we even beat our rival Wachusett. The hard work paid off with a trip to district play. Next year's team looks promising."
(Kristin)

Not a Rebuilding Season

This year the girls' basketball team was projected to have a "rebuilding season." The team lost five starters at the end of last year. However, the dedicated girls have proved the newspapers wrong. Their season record, thus far, is 13-1. The girls are on their way to districts, and the excitement can be felt. Key players for the team include senior Sara Sciammacco for the defense, juniors Erin Largess, Ashley Andre, rebounder Sue Ganas, and sophomore straight shooter Shannon Russell. The team is the best in the league, but they worked hard for their success. When asked about practice, one team member replied, "Oh my God, practice is like, two and a half — three hours a day . . . " All this hard work has been supervised by head Coach Mike Ziobro.

Boys' Basketball

The Boys' Varsity Basketball Team may be small in size this year, but they are big on dedication. "We worked really hard. The guys put in endless effort day in and day out to become better," said senior first year player Mark Govoni. The team is led by second year head coach Kevin LaDuke and Captains Alberto Jarquin and Billy DeMalia. The boys started off 2-0 with wins over Marlboro and Grafton High School. One of the biggest highlights of the season was beating last year's Border Conference Champions Southbridge High School on Southbridge's home court by 3 points in the final minutes of the game. Way to go boys!

Varsity: Seniors: Shant Arakalian (21), Billy DeMalia (23), Mark Govoni (11), Alberto Jarquin (24); Juniors: Trey Holton (10), Ryan Majewski (20), Pat McTague (50), David Nirenburg (12), Misagh Sdat-Aalaee (25), David Ramirez (33); Sophomores: Jon Bacotti (22), John Dahlstrom (14), James Buonomo (30); Freshman: Dennis Ferrante (15).

GO BIG BLUE!

The Varsity Winter Cheerleaders, led by coach Lynda Shamlian, and Captains Karin Ekberg and Angela Bisceglia, consists of 12 talented girls, seven of whom are seniors. They spend most of the winter preparing for their tournament season which begins in late February, soon after the basketball season ends.

A tournament routine is three, action packed, minutes of the team's most difficult stunting, tumbling, and dancing. Tournament competition is fierce and the girls practice hard in order to do well. Besides tournament practice four days a week, the team also supports the boys' basketball team twice a week at home and away games. Great job, Cheerleaders!

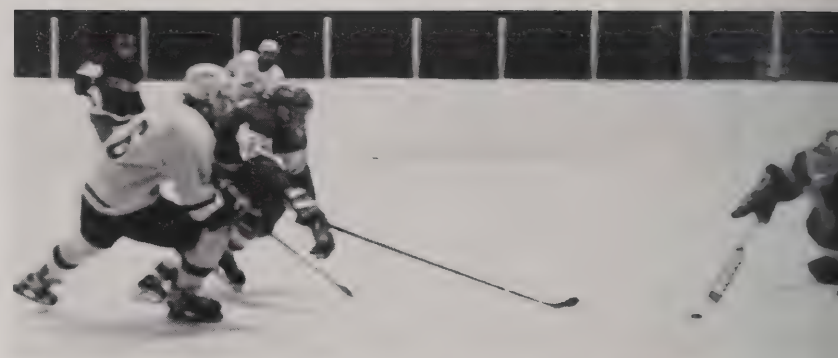
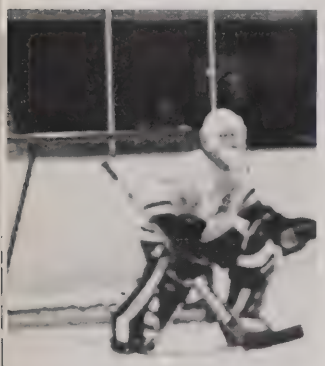
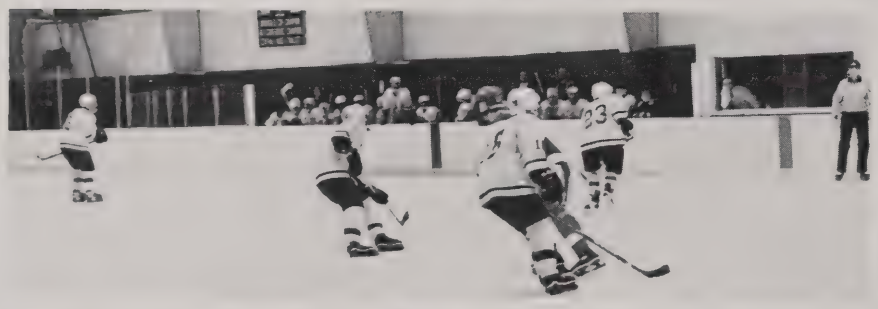
Skating to Victory

"This season's ice hockey team is poised and ready to take another run at a district championship. With several members from last year's team returning, the boys are optimistic that they can regain the form of the state finalists team of two years ago." — Capt. Jeff Duquette.

Matt Sroka says of Duquette, "He's really stepping up to the role of captain." However, under the supervision of Coach Irving, all the team members have been pushing to obtain maximum performance during practice and games. A highlight of the season was beating League rivals Algonquin in a 2-1 victory. Scoring for the team was freshman Andy Morano. The defense held it together for that tough win. The team is 5-0 in the League and 9-3 overall.







Seniors: J.P. Cardosi, Andy Cooksey, Capt, Jeff Duquette, Capt. Steve Smith; Juniors: Greg Bennett, Tom Hogan, Kevin Hunt, Jon Kujala, Mike Michalak, Joe Plante, Capt. In their fourt season this year, Shrewsbury was finally recognized as a team in the district. Although they are losing some talented and valuable seniors next year, to quote o SHS swimmer, they are "destined to perform even better next year." Some memorable moments included a 1-2-3 finish against Fitchburg, and Lisa Del gargantuan wins in the long distance. Coached by Karen Lee, the team improves their skills everyday in the Quinsigamond College pool.

SHS GYMNASTICS

With a record of 6 and 0, our own Shrewsbury High School Gymnastics team seems unstoppable. The small, close-knit team consists of a few, specifically twelve coaches! All of the girls are very hard-working, putting in hours on each event, making the team invincible. Their devotion has paid off, making this already fierce and competitive team extremely successful. The strongest area for our team are their floor routines which have scored many points with the judges. At the head of the team stands Captain Kristin Valentine and Sophomores Allison White (last year's MVP and a hopeful for this year), Lindsay Troilo, and Jen Miller. Kristin has been described by her teammates as a positive, focused and motivational leader. With an injured arm preventing her from competing, she attended all of the meets to enthusiastically cheer on her team. The goal of the SHS Gymnastics team this season is to beat their biggest rivals, Algonquin, and become the champs of the high school level gymnastics scene. Good luck, Girls!

Girls' Indoor Track

The season went well for the girls, who finished 5-1. Although small in number, the team was strong in spirit. Under the strong leadership of sprinter Shalea Angelo and shot-putter Jess Reagey, the team most recently took fourth at the Class D State Relay Meet. The 4x200, 4x400, and 4x800 relay teams will most likely place at the State Meet at the end of February. Other season highlights include the powerful shot-putting of Erica Sundt, the strong middle-distance running of Mo O'Connor and Christina King, the excellent high jumping of Lisa Pisano, and the amazing endurance of Erin Barrell, Beth Koziara, and Lori D'Elia. And of course, who can forget the Seven Hurdling Dwarfs: Ingrid Maggie, Lisa, Addie, Meghan, Lindsay, Kristin.

Boys' Indoor Track

Good things come in small packages

Tri-Captains Tim, Kevin, and Brian with Coach Goewey.

They are the powerful, the experienced, the few. This year's Boys' Indoor Track team was a feisty and hard-working bunch, despite a lack of numbers. Tri-captains Kevin Andreson, Tim LaBua, and Brian O'Connor motivated the squad and managed to have excellent seasons themselves. The guys finished the season with a respectable 4-2 record and took second place in the Mid-Wach League. Strong performances were given by shot-putters Tim Finacom and Mike Mastro, sprinter Matt Moynihan, and two-miler Callum Gow. Coach Paul Goewey was pleased with his group's effort.

IF

by Rudyard Kipling
from your loving and very proud Mom

IF you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you; IF you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, but make allowances for their doubting too; IF you can wait and not be tired by waiting, or, being lied about, dont' deal in lies, or being hated don't give way to hating, and yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise; IF you can dream — and not make dreams your master; IF you can think — and not make thoughts your aim; IF you can meet with Triumph and Disaster and treat those two imposters just the same; IF you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools, or watch the things you gave your life to, broken, and stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools; IF you can make one heap of all your winnings and risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss, and lose, and start again at your beginnings, and never breathe a word about your loss; IF you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long after they are gone, and so hold on when there is nothing in you except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!" IF you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch; IF neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you; IF all men count with you, but none too much; IF you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds' worth of distance run; Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it. AND, which is more, you'll be Men, my sons!

Megan,

Don't ever try to understand everything .
Some things will just never make sense
Don't ever be reluctant to show your feelings . .
When you're happy, give into it!
When you're not, live with it.
Don't ever be afraid to make things better .
You might be surprised at the results.
Don't ever take the weight of the world on your shoulders
Don't ever feel threatened by the future .
Take life one day at a time.
Don't ever feel guilty about the past . . .
What's done is done.
Learn from any mistakes you might have made.
Don't ever feel that you are alone . . .
There is always somebody there for you to reach out to
Don't ever forget that you can achieve so many of the things that you can imagine . . .
Imagine that!
It's not as hard as it seems.
Don't ever stop loving,
Don't ever stop believing,
Don't ever stop dreaming your dreams . . .

A time to laugh, a time to cry
But never time to say good-bye

The right things to do or say
Now the day has come,

We always thought we couldn't wait,

What to do or say.

Thanks for being the greatest friends.

To partially quote that great modern day Duxbury Scholar: "We're here for a good time." Carry that message forward to others. Help them discover, as you have, that self-esteem, personal accomplishments, love, honesty, dedication, a winning attitude, flexibility, and thoughtfulness make those "good times" happen. You have been a great contributor to OUR "good times". We're extremely proud of you. We love you,

A big reason why, again, the SHS Yearbook held the subs fee to $25! 725 copies of the Colonial were ordered. This re less copies than the previous year, but is actually a 4%
School! Cover is standard 1998 Vista Embossed in Ultra
Blue and Pale Gold. Front endsheet includes a special Er

The 1998 SHS Colonial Yearbook is 224 pages in length, including 16 pages in color. Binding is Smyth Sewn. Font is Cloister (as illustrated on this page). Headlines, ads and special effects employ varying fonts. A Spring "Extra" is planned.

A Word about Windows! It is difficult to happen on a theme which will Work: to be able to find "Intro" Comments, Photos or Visuals all appropriate to the Concept of a Yearbook; it poses a challenge. Since Mrs. O'Leary spent a few weeks in China with her camera, she just "happened" on some rather different "windows", which add a "half-way-'round-the-world" flavor, and provide a definite artistic touch. The one included on this page is from the Summer Palace outside Beijing: the very apartment which at one time belonged to the Empress Cixi (Tz'u-hsi).

A Word about the Pictures on this page! Time to work on the Yearbook has been "as scarce as hen's teeth" this year. Deadlines have been, as always, the driving force; Copy, the major stumbling block. So, wherever and whenever work can be completed, it has been. Getting pictures of staff working was rarely possible (a few photos are shown on page 159 of the Clubs & Activities Section). Therefore, Staff is represented on this page, but photos are from the past or while at other activities!

Celebrating With Jack!

Spring at SHS

The opening color page shows Mr. Gutekanst and Mrs. Meyers "welcoming" students to school in the early a.m.! Also pictured is Lauren Calimeris '99 as part of the 'Round the Clock at SHS — one of the "later" hours. But, that's not all! Lauren wears her Powder Puff T-shirt (reminiscent of this year's confrontation) and hauls TV equipment, as chance would have it, to another frequent project. Lauren might as well have been working in the Yearbook Office. She was co-production manager of the '98 Yearbook and a force behind THIS Spring "Extra"!

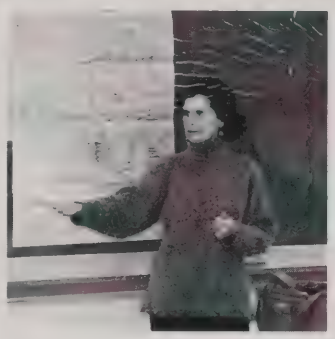
Two pages recount this year's most successful musical "Carousel". Said to be Mr. F's "favorite", he capped a thirty year performance career with this production. The last of the intro color pages (and the two following) capture a Celebration in honor of Mr. Feldheimer.

Alumni came from "near and far" to perform, to remember, to congratulate, to honor him. Performers included: Mark Ethier '97 & Liz Rice '97, Leslie Wu '94, Arto Asadoorian '96, Shrewsbury Schools' Faculty & Staff (including Mrs. Calimeris '69 and Mr. Danielson '68), Amy Beth Cuccaro '99, Kristin Gicas '98, Jesse Racicot '99, Julianne Giardiello '98, Ms. Breen — Choreographer of Mr. F's Musicals and an "Old Friend", Gino Generelli '99, Catherine Brunelle '93, Adam Popkin '96 and Dr. Popkin, Julie Swarthout '96, A Capella and Alumni Choruses sang "Sanctus", composed by accompanist Mrs. Buma in Mr. Feldheimer's honor. Very visible in some of these pictures are the all NEW blue velour curtains as well as the black cyclorama curtains, purchased with funds raised by the Sociology Spirit Committee and those donated to their project (The "kick-off" to the project was the Breakfast-on-the-Stage). Mr. Cornacchioli was the head of the custom omelet staff. Students helped him, served the delicious components of the breakfast, or hosted tables of Town, Community and School Guests. One picture shows that the $6,000 plateau has been reached. Twice that amount was raised and made it possible to have the stage floor resurfaced, stage lights replaced and to plan several additional improvement projects — all in honor of Mr. Jack Feldheimer!

Just three of the visitors to SHS this Spring: to Mrs. Potash's joint class with Mrs. Stevens, Rabbi Goldstein, a survivor of Auschwitz. Mrs. Potash had spent the previous summer in the study of the Holocaust, then followed during the school year by sharing with various classes. Students completed a number of projects, one a model of the Concentration Camp Sobibor by Coleen O'Neill, was displayed at Celebration of Learning III.

ELNA has a chapter at SHS, advised by Mrs. Black and Mrs. Stevens. After attending a seminar and much preparation a conference was held at SHS. The main speaker was Manuel Fernandez. ELNA works to make everyone more aware of the beginnings of violent behavior and how to mediate and hopefully prevent it.

Mr. Chace's and Mrs. O'Leary's classes were fortunate to be able to listen to and ask questions of Atty. Carnduff who had spent many months of Public Service in Bosnia, helping to establish the foundations of what we all hope will be Peace! Students were particularly aware of how "easy" it is to go to war and how very difficult to work for peace.

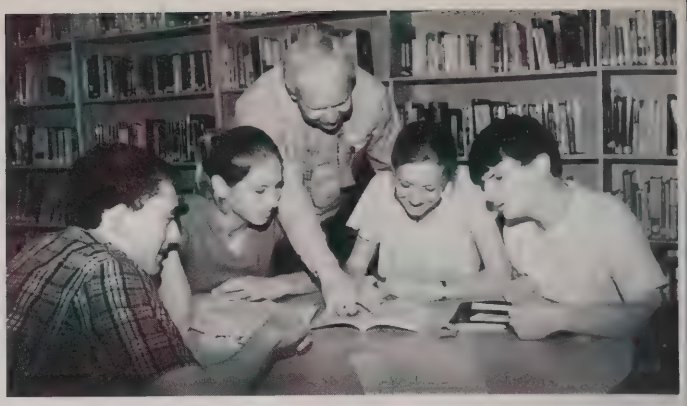


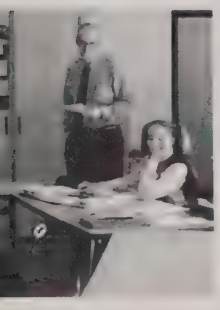
Mr. Gutekanst and SC President Jessica Reagey '98 co-chair a first attempt at interacting with the Class Representatives and other Student Leaders in a "town meeting" style event. Questionnaires supplied a list of issues uppermost in students' minds: the new SHS, homework, attendance policy, smoking, the academic schedule and studies.

Each year, the Junior Class transforms the SHS Gym into a fantasy. This year, it was Moonlight and the Mediterranean! What often does not get into the Yearbook is ALL the behind the scenes work!

You've heard the expression "not until the 'fat lady' sings"? Well, that's what we were told this picture was to signify. We're not sure what it was really all about, but it seems that Mr. McGinn got into the spirit of it!

Frequently to be seen at SHS sports activities as well as many other SHS events: Mr. & Mrs. Largess.





'Round the Clock

The cameras were clicking that Tuesday, beginning before 7:30 am and continuing for 12 hours! What you see is a very small part of the display at Celebration of Learning III, and THAT was but part of the several hundred frames taken. The project was also a "pilot" for an ambitious idea developed by Mr. Marchand: to take even more shots and then edit and publish!

at SHS

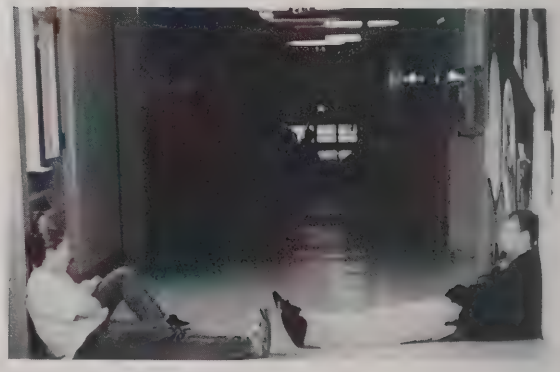
SHS



Breakfast on the Stage

How many dozens of eggs? More than a dozen choices of custom omelets! And everything else that is necessary for a delicious breakfast! All organized by the Sociology Classes as the formal beginning of one of their "Spirit" projects: new curtains for the SHS Stage to be dedicated to Mr. Jack Feldheimer. Guests included Town Officials and School Staff, Business Representatives and Members of the Community: all in all, about 150 for Breakfast!

THe 3rd edition of Celebration of Learning was held at Floral Street School in May. This event is co-hosted by the Shrewsbury Education Foundation and the Shrewsbury Schools. More than a hundred Teachers, Town Departments and Community groups made presentations. Shown are Mrs. Potash's/Mrs. Steven's Student Projects, Mr. Rose and his Wife presenting their Round-the-World saga, Mrs. O'Leary's China artifacts, the Dream Team, Mr. Rose's Drama Class (and in their background, artwork/projects from the World Languages' classes).

Dream Team

Yet another activity for the very active Dream Team: a walk for AIDS, this one at the beach where, you can see, there was a lot of fun to be enjoyed.

Some interesting single photos: Like "teacher", like "student"; two of the Colonial "kids" sport ties just like their Student-teacher Doug Clockedile; the Juniors "mill" about waiting to get started to the College Fair; the ten highest ranked Shrewsbury HS Seniors meet, greet and are gifted by the School Committee; Jess Reagey and Mrs. Black share a fond moment at the Senior-Faculty Dinner.

On the Green

What a season! Coach Cornacchioli and Captain Brian Sequeria's leadership resulted in an undefeated 15-0 record. The team reached their ultimate high: beating strongest competitor, North Middlesex 10-8. They hadn't lost a match in 25 competitions until facing the Colonials. In the League Championship Match, SHS placed second behind Wachusett. The team proceeded to place a stellar third out of fourteen teams in Districts; and second in the State. Hawley placed 11th in the State while team members Sequeria and O'Leary were League All-Stars and Duquette was named District All-Star. After this celestial season, the team will have to adjust to the loss of Coach Cornacchioli. Coach C. said, "It was a great fourteen years . . . I will sorely miss coaching young athletes . . . it wasn't fair to the students that I was a part-time coach . . . now I can be a parent." New captains of Billy Younker and Tony Sigismondo will surely lead the team to another victory next season.

A Stroke of Genius

A brilliant season was completed by the Girls' Spring Crew Team. Led by captains Addie Roberge and Melissa Lucente and seniors Melissa Castellanos and Casie Richardson, the crew was motivated, dedicated, and ready to row to their potential which proved to be of an impressive caliber. At the Cape Cod Championships the first boat placed third in its race. During the New England Championships their talent and hard work paid off. The first boat placed fifth earning them a spot in the finals. They placed fourth in that competition.

The Shell Game

In a stellar performance the Boys' Spring Crew Team rowed the fine line where brute strength and necessary grace meet. Led by veteran captains Dave White and Chris Casey, two quality varsity boats and one novice boat competed from Lake Quinsigamond to the Hudson River to the salty waters of Cape Cod. In competition at the Cape Cod Championships both the first and second boats earned a second place finish in tight competition. At the New England's the second boat placed fifth. The first boat was the fastest Shrewsbury crew earning a 4:50 finish in the 1500 meter race. Their fourth place finish was .2 seconds off third place and just two seconds behind rival St. John's. Thanks again to the Donahue Family for their continuing support, as well as to parents and fans.

21 Years and Still Running . . .

"If you can imagine it you can achieve it, if you can dream it you can become it." Captain Shalea Angelo's saying was a source of inspiration throughout the spring season, pushing the girls to their 21st year as State Champ. The underdog going into the League Meet, SHS retained their title killing the favored rival Wachusett by 70 points. The girls look forward to next year's season under the leadership of Captains Mo O'Connor, Erin Largess, and Sue Ganas.

Running Hard

Despite being plagued with injuries and absences, the SHS Boys' Track team had a decent season with convincing victories over Leominster and North Middlesex. They also made a strong showing at the District relays, taking second in the mile relay and defending their first place title in the sprint medley relay. Key players were Capt. Kevin Andreson, Capt. Bill DeMalia, star thrower Mike Mastro, and half-mile phenom Tim LaBua. The boys were able to take fourth place at the league meet and fifth at the district class meet. The boys look forward to another compelling season next year, hoping once again to overcome any hardships and continue running hard.

The .500 Season

The SHS Varsity was led by Captains Mark Govoni and Brian O'Connor. The changes were many with O'Connor moving to shortstop, Charlie Flanagan now catching and Govoni filling in with some pitching duties. The start was a slow one, but the team soon caught fire and won several in a row, defeating rivals Milford and undefeated-to-that-point Leominster. The team counted on good pitching from Nate Sorenson and Nick Rotolo and strong hitting from O'Connor, Govoni and Sophomore James Buonomo.

"The Play's the Thing!"

The varsity softball team faced a big change this season: new head coach Matt Palumbo and their dedication to working on mechanics. Led by Captains Eileen Duhamel and Maria DiPilato and by Seniors Emily Serra and Kelly Kenyon, the girls finished the season with a 12-8 record. Underclassmen Jill Morris, Angie Todisco and Tia Urella played great defense, making a strong contribution to the season.

People of the Court

Seniors: Captain Kristen Boyer, Captain Liz Brunell, Marisa Izzard, Geeta Kohli, Jess Lynch; Juniors: Ashley Andre, Lynn Cautela, Stephanie Cuénoud, Lindsey Michaels; Freshmen: Emily Kinback, Jesslyn Keukan, Lauren Michaels.

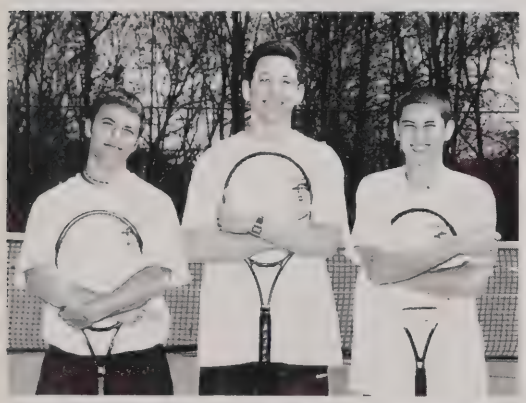
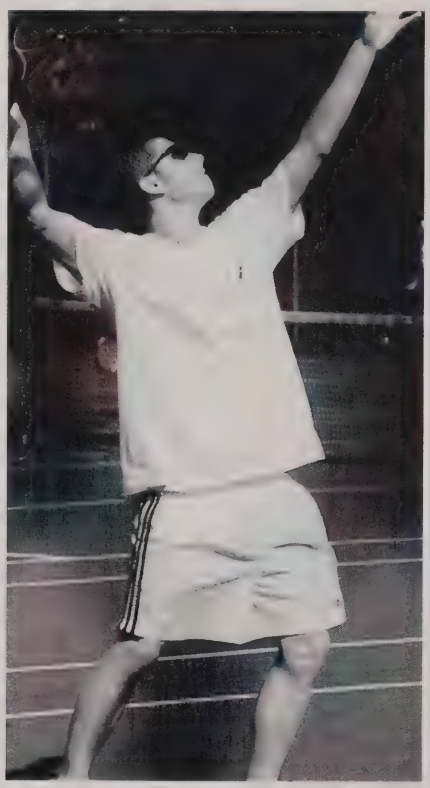
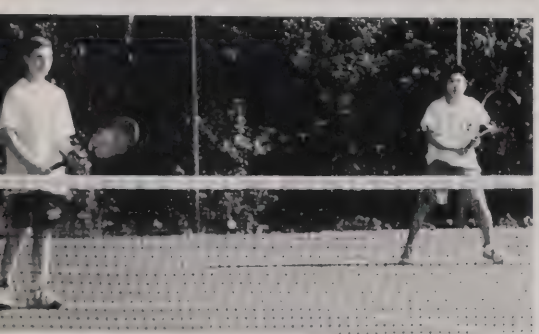
Game. Set. Match.

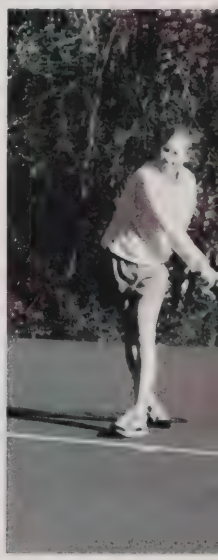
Led by Captains Rosenbaum and Weingart, the team finished with an astounding 15-4 record. Continually, the team came up with clutch victories by Weingart, Rosenbaum, or first doubles tandem freshman phenom Paul Cotto and cutie Cory Bernhard. Team MVP Rosenbaum had a stellar 14-4 record, with second singles Weingart smashing a 16-2 record, losing solely to Westboro rival Jess Rilla. Cotto and Bernhard compiled a 15-1 record earning the position of League All-Stars along with Weingart and Rosenbaum (also T&G All-Stars). The team had a huge victory against Milford in the quarterfinals of District play with a pressured straight set win by Rosenbaum. In the semifinals, Weingart, Rosenbaum and Cotto/Bernhard delivered. SHS slipped into the finals against powerhouse St. John's who had not lost a Central Mass match for two years. SHS did exceptionally well with strong comeptition for the Pioneers, who had to put up a strong fight to win States. Cotto and Bernhard played a "matchless" match against the Pioneers and won with a thrilling 3 set victory. The 1999 season looks to be another celestial season.

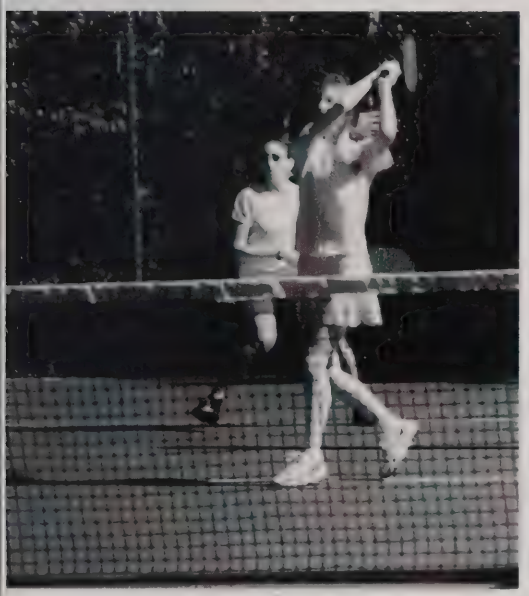






The Courts are in Session





With eleven of twelve 1997 girls' tennis team members, they eagerly returned for a season of hard hitting on the courts. Joining the girls was Wisconsin native Ashley Andre. Junior Lindsey Michaels commented that the team had to adjust to the new coaching techniques of tennis guru McGinn. Tennis phenom Andre ripped up the courts in her first SHS tennis season, becoming star of the team. Michaels believes that next year will be a hard season due to the loss of five beloved seniors: Boyer, Brunell, Izzard, Kohli, and Lynch. With a record of 8-7 they look forward to next year's challenging season.

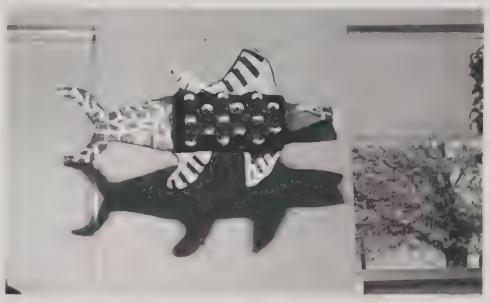
National Honor Society

Every Spring, NHS inducts its new members and elects Officers for the coming year. Members and parents enjoyed a great dinner and listened to Speaker for the Evening, Vice Principal and Administrator for the Class of '99, Mrs. Steele. New Officers are: Matt Davis, Jared Starr, Stephanie Cuénoud, Lori D'Elia.

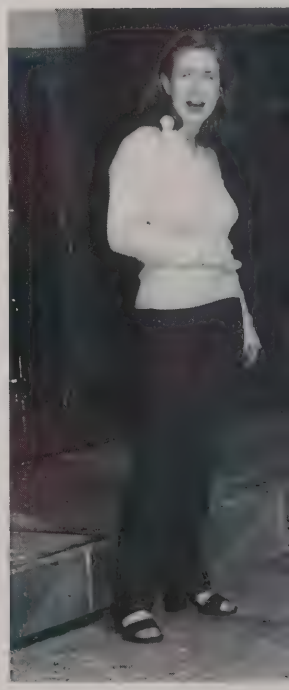
Fine Arts at SHS

SHS displays all manner of visual arts in preparation for the NAHS Induction and Celebration. Our favorite, this year, is the magical dragon shown on the cover. The same evening offers a feast for the ear as many musical solos, duets, and groups perform.



NHS Coffee House

The second annual NHS Coffee House was a sell-out! The performances were fast paced, varied, and very well received by the audience. Highlights were martial arts demonstrations by Eric Mueller '99 and Eric Roedel '99, dramatic presentations by Speech & Debate's Jenn Berridge '99 and Lauren Calimeris '99, the SHS Jazz Band, and a number of performance groups. The flavored coffees were elegant, especially those with whipped cream! NHS was assisted by a group of most industrious parents & teachers!



Spring at SHS!

The third and last Teacher Appreciation Day for 1997-98 at SHS offered delicious — and rich — cakes to go with coffee or tea as teachers prepared for one of their monthly faculty meetings. Each Sociology Class hosted one of these "Spirit" events.

One of the interesting threads that wove through the year was talk — and then action — concerning a NEW SHS! The need has long been evident. Classes have "grown" in recent memory from 190 to 240, and, some elementary grades show membership over 300! A new high school seems the best course of action. If it does come to fruition, it will take more than three MORE years. Photos show some of the initial steps: at a Town Meeting and at a School Committee Meeting where necessary preliminary votes were taken. What isn't shown are the dozen of additional meetings already held by Committees, School & Town Officials and the Architects Lamoureux & Pagano (shown presenting information at the School Committee Meeting, June 17th, 1998).

Intramural activity this Spring included some very active volleyball games, organized by Mrs. Krause and Mr. Munzner. The colorfully named teams enjoy this yearly event.

"Graduating" with '98!

There is nothing like "being there", especially for students trying to learn a foreign language. Dr. Courchesne led her group to France during April Vacation. Here they pause for a picture in front of the Eiffel Tower.

The annual Awards Night is one of the few events that the Yearbook did not attend, but we document it nevertheless in a small way. A number of Book Awards are made each year. Pictured is the University of Pennsylvania Book Award made by Mr. Secino to Laura Kyser.

Mr. Feldheimer rounded out his last year at SHS with his favorite musical, "Carousel" and his retirement was celebrated in a grand way by Students, Teachers, Alumni and an auditorium full of friends. Mr. Hassett completed his last round of College Applications and many other Guidance oriented tasks this year. Not retiring, but headed for "THe Cape", is everybody's favorite Attendance "guru", Mrs. Peterson. Channel 58's Mrs. Korab is taking time out to have and nurture her first "little one". We wish the greatest of good luck and good health to all!

A Spring Highlight is the Fine Writing Week, organized by Mrs. LaBelle and the English Department. Everyone writes to the same prompt, this year, the phantasmagoria in an antique shoppe. Winners of the event were: Grade 9 Caitlin Buckley, Emily Cheney, Mimi Murray, Kate Welch; Grade 10 Shaw Lupton, Lisa Pisano, Cai Waegell, Bill Younker; Grade 11 Sara Cheney, Laura Kyser, Sonnet Nguyen, Sara Beth Wooden; Grade 12 Valerie Johnson, Timothy LaBua, Tara Mattson, Matt Moynihan.

SC Presents the Hypnotist & "Kiss the Goat"!

The Hypnotist, Frank Santos, Jr., was a successful repeat of last year's SC/SAC fund raiser. But, "Kiss the Goat" was NEW! Good natured sports from the Faculty: Mr. Danielson, Mr. Warren, Ms. Adams and Mr. Largess "vied" for the "honor" of "Kissing the Goat" — as you can see, a real, live goat named "Sally"! Well, it really wasn't trying. Rather, a contest in which jugs labeled with the aforementioned names were used to collect donations. The person who attracted the most donations got to "kiss the goat". And, again, as you can see, that lucky person was none other than Mr. Largess! He needed a few moments to get to know "Sally" before he got down on one knee to give her a big "smooch".

There was a lot that happened at SHS this Spring, more than the usual "lot". This has necessitated extra pages for the "Extra". Senior Week!

The usual activities: Prom, Commemoration, Picnic, Senior-Faculty Dinner and Graduation were joined by the taking of the Class Picture in the form of a '98, planned by Greg Filippetti and Brian Mawdsley and supervised by Class Administrator, Mr. Largess. Everything moved along like "clockwork", as can be seen.
